

Paul Jones, BSc
Medical Student

Frita Sampson, MI
Librarian

Sherry Singh, MA
Research Associate

Jane Smith, PhD
Sociologist

Paul is a third year medical student. He is approaching residency and would like to gain some research experience to boost his chances of attaining his desired specialty and training program.

Frita has her Masters of Information and is a librarian working with the Department of Sociology.

Sherry is a research associate who has her masters in education. She has considerable experience doing qualitative research with Dr. Clark.

Jane is a sociologist. She has devoted her career to studying how power relationships between health professionals influence the effectiveness of interprofessional collaboration and education.

Joe Clark, MD
Physician and Researcher

Joe is a physician and researcher who has some interests in medical education.